ANNOUNCEMENTS BREED THEATRE.

The Snewbird, a strong five part Metro wonderplay, with Mabel Talia-ferro in the stellar role, and featuring Edwin Carewe, is the feature at the Breed theatre today. The majority of scenes in this production are laid in the picturesque Hurison Eay district in Canada, where the company worked in snow-covered mountain trails, and in snow-covered mountain trails, and in a French-Canadian settlement. Mr. Carewe, who directed The Snowbird, besides taking a prominent role, was induced to take the part because of his exceptional qualifications for the character he portrays. The role is that of Jean Corteau, a primitive man of the Jean Corteau, a primitive man of the backwoods, whose character and bet-ter nature are developed under the influence of the gentlewoman who come fluence of the gentlewoman who comes into his life from civilization. Mr. Carewe is one-fourth Chickasaw Indian and spent his early life on a reservation in Oklahoma close to nature. He has given an artistic and finished character delineation in The Snowbird and critics declars it to be the best work he has ever done on either the speaking stage or screen.

pletes the bill for today.
For Wednesday and Thursday the Breed will present Crans Wilbur in Love Liar, a Murual mesterpiece in Love Ling, a Mutual masterpiece in five wonderful acts. An unusual theme has been adapted for the presentation of the Love Liar. The story tells of the affairs of a prominent musiciam who lightly casts addle genuine love for false love, resulting in his downfall. Mr. Wilbur gives a aplendia characterization and stumps himself as a good of more than ordinary vernaan actor of more than ordinary versa-

Starting tomorrow, the Mutual Weekly, showing the latest news from the front, will be at the Breed every! Wednesday and Thursday.

Atop The Majestic Roof.

The feature picture attraction for the Majestic Roof Garden Monday and Tuesday evening is the four reel Selig drama entitled The Conflict, and it proved to be che of the most exciting photoplays yet shown on the Roof. Other pictures on the bill are Human Hounds a very famny comedy reel and The Raid, another funny picture. Jacobst New York Society orchestra. Jacobs' New York Society orchestra furnished the music for dancing and the usual line of refreshments are in the picture programme tomorrow.
